This is what the cronies are doing to disrupt an opportunity for residents to speak to their elected official. [REDACTED] was so disruptive. I had to call the sheriff. Because all the other cronies there misled the sheriff, they did not remove him. However, I ended the event and [REDACTED] and his other cronies including Carlisle refused to leave. These forms are nothing more than welcoming residence into my office to discuss Township business. [REDACTED] and the others think they could yell scream and disrupt at any time. That's like saying you could walk into an office building like the board of elections and just start screaming in the lobby or back in their offices. They would have you removed in the sheriff would remove them, but unfortunately, there's political games being played.
